

Little Sis Mara

BIOGRAPHY

Swedish artist and entertainer Little Sis Nora, with 2.5 billion+ streams worldwide, gained fame collaborating with her brother, AronChupa. Her hits include “I’m an Albatraz,” “Rave in the Grave” and “Llama In My Livingroom.” Since 2019, she has also been the lead vocalist of the successful Swedish band Albatraz (the same name as the song) contributing to hits like “Rave i mitt Garage” and “E(Ventex)”. The band has gained over 300 million+ streams on Spotify. Embarking on solo projects, she released English versions of Albatraz songs under her name, with “MDMA” being an international success with 50 million+ streams. She continues to collaborate with artists within the EDM, dancepop scene while working on her solo artist project.

Nora has created a name for herself not only as a vocalist but as an entertaining performer. She is known for her energetic and charismatic stage presence, which has helped her create a strong and loyal fan base. She has toured around the world and participated in major music festivals, where she has received raving responses from both audiences and critics.
